Fully Live and In Person

This year's UK PORTS & MARINE Suppliers and contractors Conference will return to being live and in person. Speakers, panelists and attendees from the Ports & Marine Services will be able to meet each other, question the presenters and exchange ideas at a highly focused one day event in London on the 20th of January 2022.

UK PORTS LIVE 2022 is a unique get-together of the main customers and leading suppliers in this exclusive complex, fast-moving market of the UK Ports & Marine Services within 2022

Major New Conference

For the first time, this Event will draw together all parties involved in this dynamic sector. It will focus on actual case studies and Future Plans from Port & Marine companies and operators themselves.

UK PORTS LIVE 2022 will focus on the Future of the Ports & Marine Services and Help supply and implement continuous New suppliers and Contractors within the Ports Due to their large expansion and continuous growth.

Join the debate, question those involved and find out the issues faced by those who have launched their services and discuss where they will take them next. This is your chance to meet the people who are shaping this market, who are driving it forward and bringing in new services, ideas and technologies.

Real-Life Experiences

UK PORTS LIVE 2022 will feature real-world experiences from leading Ports & Marine Operators and Authorities across the UK who have been immediately involved in the infrastructure and expansion of the Ports & Marines.

The Event is focused primarily on getting the Port Operators to tell their stories and outline their plans for the growth & future.
